

Sunday Brunch & Mimosas

Historic Seminole Inn Sunday, March 11

Join Day Trippin' with Patti & Vicky for a relaxing Sunday Brunch at the Historic Seminole Inn in Indiantown. We will travel by small bus (two pickup stops) and arrive at the Seminole Inn for 12 noon seating. Brunch buffet consists of traditional breakfast items (eggs prepared in various ways, sausage, bacon, potatoes, grits, etc.) as well as, traditional Sunday dinner dishes—i.e., Seminole Inn's famous fried chicken, roast beef, salad bar, fruits, breads, etc. Since there is not a bar at the Seminole Inn, we will be bringing our own Mimosa makings. The Seminole Inn, also known, as the Seminole Country Inn, is a Mission Revival style historic hotel built by S. Davies Warfield, who was, at one time, President of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. His niece, Wallis Warfield Simpson, who became the Duchess of Windsor, and her husband Prince Edward VIII, the Duke of Windsor, were (probably) the hotel's most famous guests. We will be free to tour the Inn to absorb some of its rich history.
